

2024 Douglas County Spring Livestock Expo

General Rules

1. The Expo is exclusively for Douglas County 4-H/FFA members. No out-of-county exhibitors accepted.
2. All exhibitors and attendees of the Expo do so at their own risk. The Douglas County Extension Council assumes no liability for accidents that occur and/or for loss or injury of livestock due to theft, mysterious disappearance, or sickness.
3. Expo officials will only tag animals that are being exhibited at the April 27th Spring Expo show.
4. Animals must be owned by the Douglas County 4-H /FFA member. Exhibitors are strongly encouraged to do their own grooming. Assistance may be given by family members, leaders, and other 4-H/FFA members.
5. Breeding and Market animal show grooming may include the use of adhesives, paints and powders. Artificial materials or hair not from the animal itself are not allowed.
6. Exhibitors must show their own animals. In the case of a 4-H/FFA member having two animals in one class, another 4-H/FFA member may show their second animal.
7. For breeding classes, females only will be shown. No intact male of any species will be allowed.
8. Females may be double-entered in both market and breeding.
9. Livestock will be released at the conclusion of their respective species show.
10. Exhibitors are required to clean all pens and stalls before leaving the fairgrounds. Please bring the necessary tools to do so!
11. Exhibitors are required to bring their own shavings and are encouraged to wear the Spring Livestock Expo exhibitor t-shirt.
12. Rules not listed above, default to rules of the Douglas County Fair. Questions about rules can be directed to Nickie Harding at nharding@ksu.edu
